

World Athletics Diamond League

The IAAF Diamond League replaced the IAAF Golden League in 2010. The IAAF Diamond League consists of 14 meetings around the world. At each meeting 16 of the 32 disciplines are scheduled.

The scoring to the Diamond Race: At every meeting the winners got 4 points (runners-up 2 points and third place 1 point). At the final competition of the annual series the points were doubled. On tie on points the first tie breaker were the number of wins, then the result of the final competition. The overall winners in each discipline were awarded a diamond of about USD 80.000.

Since 2017, the best 8 and 12 athletes on points resp. qualify to the Diamond League Final. Only the winners at this final are the Diamond League Winners of the season.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic the format was changed in 2020. The series was no structured series of events leading up to a final and athletes had not earned Diamond League points.
