<sup>1</sup> The IOC postponed the Olympic Games to 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Shooting was originally scheduled on 2020, Jul 25 - Aug 03.

<sup>2</sup> 2000 - 2012: The top 6 shooters in the qualifying round moved on to the final round. There, they fired on additional 25 targets. The final result is the addition of qualifying and final score. Ties were broken by shoot-offs on single targets until the tie was broken.

<sup>4</sup> 2016: The top 6 shooters in the qualifying round (75 targets) moved on to the semifinal, qualifying scores did not carry over to the final rounds. In the semifinals, every competitor had 15 targets (only one shot). A table was established where the first and second fought for the gold medal, while the third and fourth - for the bronze medal. In the Gold and Bronze medal matches every shooter had 15 targets (only one shot) again. Ties were decided by shoot-offs on single targets until the tie was broken.

<sup>5</sup> Since 2020: The top 6 shooters in the qualifying round (125 targets) moved on to the final round without taking into account the qualification scores. There, they fired additional (max. 50) shots. Every five shots the lowest-ranked shooter is eliminated beginning from shot 25. Only the last two competitors fired the shots 41 - 50.
